IN MEMORIAM.

In memory of little Minnie Pearl Sebastian, whose soul took its flight Dec. 2, 1908:
Oh how it grieves us to give our darling up.
But remember we all have to drink from the bitter cup.
Of course our dear Lord knows what we can bear
And he will not give us over our share.
He has prepared mansions, but there was one not complete
So he took little Minnie to fill the vacant seat.
She has gone to meet her little sisters that Jesus called before.
Waiting to welcome her at the door.
Three little angels hand in hand
Gone to join that happy band.
And if we live right it won't be long
Until we shall join them in their song.
Our dear Lord of course knows best,
That's why he called little Minnie home to rest.
Sickness nor sorrow she will never know
Nor of the worldly troubles here below.
She is with her loved ones up in the skies,
Where there will never be any good-byes.
Safe in a world that shall never end,
Let our prayers be to meet her forever.
Amen!

MAMIE SEBASTIAN.

RUSSELL.—Henry Russell, of near Junction City, passed from the stage of earthly action at the good old age of 77 years; "like a shock of corn fully ripe." Brother Russell was a member of the Christian church for 29 years, during which time we did not know much about his standing as a member, but six years ago he came into the Church of Christ under the preaching of Brother Hubbard, of Stanford. We are told that he lived a consistent life from that time until death claimed him. He leaves a devoted wife, six children and a number of grand children to mourn his loss. Children, weep not for your great loss is his eternal gain. You will never hear his voice more. Because his tongue is still.
You can meet him on Canaan's shore,
That is if you will.
Break off your sins by doing right,
Be a Christian full of might,
Always dare the foe to fight
And do the Master's will.
